IMPORTANT NOTICE

No Refunds Policy Tickets are non-refundable and no credits will be issued for unused tickets, whether they were purchased individually or as part of a season pass purchase. Ticket Exchanges All ticket sales are final. Exchanges for another performance of the current show may be made up to 24 hours prior to performance, subject to availability. Email boxoffice@boroarts.org with any needed ticket changes. Seating All seating for The Center for the Arts is reserved seating. Patrons requiring special seating consideration due to a medical condition should contact the Box Office to make advance arrangements. Arrival Time The box office will open one hour before the performance begins. Doors to the theatre will be opened for seating by Front of House staff approximately 30 minutes prior to curtain. Latecomer Seating and No-Show Policy Latecomers will be seated at the discretion of the Front of House staff at the first appropriate break that allows for the least disruption for the actors, as well as the rest of the audience. Please keep in mind only a limited number of latecomers can be accommodated. Please notify the Box Office at boxoffice@boroarts.org if you know you will be late to a performance so the staff can be prepared. Unless notified of a tardiness, the Center's Front of House staff will begin the process of utilizing 'no show' tickets to those on the waiting list beginning at the start of the scheduled show time (7:30pm for an evening show, 2:00pm for a matinee). It is suggested that guests arrive 30 minutes prior to each show and contact the Center at boxoffice@boroarts.org if you are unable to make the show or if you will be late.
